

CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "nothing" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Call.

UPON THE LUGGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers.—carriages, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, readables of receipt, etc. The LUGGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, is a concession.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in the LUGGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—42 times—the bill is $17.50. When he finds it out, there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an angry letter. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "full paid" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

For all matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

IF you have friends visiting you, or if you are getting away on a visit, please drop us a note to our office.

Misses Fannie and Carrie Hays are the guests of friends at Danville.

Mr. C. E. Horrocks of Ashland was a caller on The LUGGER yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Legrie of Paris are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rhea.

Mr. John Powell of Covington is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell.

Miss Grace Blend of Cincinnati is the guest of the family of Mr. George T. Wood.

Misses Clara and Theresa Baff of Newport are visiting Miss Aggie Dinger of the West End.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nute of Flemingsburg are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Toup.

Miss Nannie McCullough of Covington is visiting her aunt, the Misses McCullough of East Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beard and daughters, Misses Eliza and Grace of Louisville, are visiting Mr. R. H. Beard and family.

Mr. J. C. Crumshaw of The Augusta Chronicle was in the city yesterday, en route to the Red Men's jamboree at Lexington.

Miss Carrie Brayfield of Oakland Md., Ky., after spending two weeks very pleasantly with relatives and friends in the city and at Mt. Glend, returned home yesterday.

And the next day it snowed!

Mr. D. Heckinger is in Baltimore, called there by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Blum.

W. W. Thomas the spice dealer who burned out at Cincinnati had $79,400 insurance on his stock.

The remains of the late Alex. B. Greenwood, formerly of this city, were interred at Knoxville.

The fire alarm last evening was caused by a scare at the saloon of N. Gollenstine. No damage to speak of.

Messrs. Kirk & Clift have shipped five carloads of fancy cattle for export to Europe. Their weight averaged 900 pounds.

Hon. Sam J. Pugh came home to spend Christmas with his family at Vanceburg. He says there will be no war between Johnny Bull and Uncle Sam.

Mr. E. E. Jacobs and Miss Lucy Clark of Flemingsburg were married at the Central Hotel in this city yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Rev. E. B. Calk.

The weather has unfortunately been very disagreeable since the members of Hancock's splendid Band, who are this week giving evening concerts and a dance at Neptune Hall, notwithstanding which the "boys" are attracting fair audiences.

The Band has always shown public spirit when called upon, and they deserve liberal patronage.

MAVSILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For The Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LUGGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR:
Blue—RAIN or SNOW:
White with a black border—WILL WARMER grow.
Black—HIGHER—COLDER—will be.
Train's Black—shown—no change we'll have.

The above forecasts are made for a period of twenty-four hours, ending at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of The LUGGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northern Kentucky. If any one can find a better paper, we will be glad to exchange.

Regular meeting of Washington Camp No. 3, P. O. S. of A. tonight; work in the Red and White Degrees and regular election of officers. A full attendance is urged.

The marriage of Miss Bessie M. Shotwell of Glasgow Junction to Mr. William Durham of Old City took place yesterday at 9 o'clock at her home. Miss Shotwell is a niece of Mrs. M. C. Chisholm of this city, and has visited here several times.

James M. Arnold of Newport, who a year ago was unanimously chosen Brigadier General, commanding the nine Camps of the Eastern Department, Kentucky Division of the United Confederate Veterans, has tendered the services of the "old boys" to the President in case of a "scrap" with Mrs. Bull.

The Paris Kentuckian says the City Council has instructed Mayor Armstrong to appoint a committee to have the water now being used from the water-works analyzed. There is a terrible odor emitted from it, and we think that the water might be diseased. Maybe, friend Card, something has crawled into it and died.

Governor Bradley thinks that many visitors who come to Frankfort would like to see the pictures presented Kentucky by Philadelphia without going to the Governor's private office. He has consequently, requested Mrs. Day the Librarian to have these pictures hung else where, and she is having them placed on the walls of the Senate Chamber and House of Representatives.

On Saturday night will occur the annual election of officers of the Mason County Building and Saving Association.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGANI!

NEWLY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Keystone State passed up last night for Pittsburgh.

The Hudson will pass down from Pittsburgh about Sunday.

The Bonanza is now running in the Cincinnati and Memphis trade.

A big river may be looked for, as there have been a good twenty-four hour down-pour above.

Nature's Christmas gift to the river men in the shape of a good, substantial rise in the Ohio was a very acceptable one.

Coal is extremely scarce on the lower Mississippi. Railroads are hauling it into Natchez to be used by the boats for fuel.

The report that the Beaver had wrecked her entire tow is incorrect. The boat lost only two barges, and the J. C. Risher ran into the two sunken boats, but escaped with only a scare.

The Mississippi at St. Louis is at flood tide, the marks registering over 23 feet while the Osage, Gasconade and other rivers in Missouri have practically become regular seas, rendering thousands of people homeless.

Something like 12,000,000 bushels of black diamonds are now on their South-west journey from Pittsburgh, while at the Kanawha fleet will add about 6,000,000 bushels more to this, making 18,000,000 bushels of coal coming on the present tide.

There are rumors of a steamboat war between Louisville and Evansville which would keep up hot, steady, good cooking does it. I never permit interest in my announcements to lag, and never miss an issue in my chosen publications. Advertising has made my store one of the largest in the country.

Forehound Cough Candy at J. James Wood's.

Despite the wretched weather, there was a fairly good audience at the Operahouse last evening. The beneficiary, Mrs. Julia Pearce Cummings, deserved a crowded house, and would have had it but for the elements.

Those who attended were delighted, as they might be, for the program was replete with musical gems, each ably rendered. We learn that the net proceeds amount to about $75.

Yes, Indeed!

Thomas A. Davis, Editor of The Maysville LUGGER, has gone into the telephone business; but will continue the publication of his splendid Republican sheet.

Christmas Entertainment.
The Sunday school of the Central Presbyterian Church will give an entertainment at the church this evening at 7 o'clock. No charge. All members of the church and their friends cordially invited.

Roll of Honor.
The pupils of the Male Department of the High School whose names appear below made an average of 90 in deportment and class standing for December:

Courtesy Respects, Cent Walther, Funder Woods, Frank McNamara, Harry Brady, Leslie Gault, Bruce Henry, John Scott, Ernest Miles.

"The Ledger" Was Right.
Mr. Samuel B. Oldham, who was painfully injured Christmas night, is improving, and it will be gratifying to all to know that he will not lose his sight, as was at first feared.

By the way, THE LUGGER was right. He struck the LEDGER by a fragment of a cannon firecracker, and not by a ball from a Roman candle.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. J. Schenck, Editor of The Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age, was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in any household." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Many very bad cases of rheumatism have been cured by it. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

SURE CURE

FOR DULL TRADE.

John Wanamaker Says:

"I do the heaviest advertising in dull times."

"Then it is when people look most keenly for bargains and are anxious to know what things cost, and where they can save money. I advertise particular things, give prices, and take as much pains with my announcement as I do with my stock. One big dinner would keep up that steady, good cooking does it. I never permit interest in my announcements to lag, and never miss an issue in my chosen publications. Advertising has made my store one of the largest in the country."

CHRISTMAS COURTESIES.

Massachusetts Sends Maysville a Handsome Holiday Gift.

Milford Commandery, Milford, Mass., through Eminent Sir William C. Miner of this city, has presented Maysville Commandery with a handsome souvenir.

It is a mammoth photograph 24x44 feet and is explained in the accompanying letter:

MILFORD, MASS., Dec. 21st, 1895.
Eminent and Dear Sir: The following Sir Knights of Milford Commandery, in appreciation of the courtesies extended to them by Sir Knights of Maysville Commandery at our late convocation in Boston, send today a photograph of our Commandery in the parade: Eminent Sir S. C. Sumner, Recorder; H. E. Whitney, E. C.; Sirs W. J. Clarke, C. T. Wilkinson, A. S. Bassett, Charles E. Whitney, W. S. V. Cooke, John T. Collins, George E. Thayer, L. E. Fates.

Will you kindly present this to Maysville Commandery with Christmas greetings?

We will all endeavor to meet you again in Pittsburgh, when we hope to continue our acquaintance. Courteously yours,

HORACE E. WHITNEY, E. C.
Eminent Sir W. C. Miner, P. C., Maysville, Ky.

THE "SPRINKLE" DOLLAR.

Was Not Made By the Government, But Was Good.

New York Financier.

"I saw by the paper the other day where three of the famous 'Sprinkle' dollars had shown up," said F. L. Strowbridge of Powers, Ill.

"Do you know what the 'Sprinkle' dollars were? No? Well, Josiah Sprinkle, the man in question, lived in one of the roughest sections in Lewis county, Kentucky. Washington, the county seat of Mason, was then a thriving town. One day Sprinkle, then an old man, appeared in Washington with a buckskin pouch full of silver dollars of his own make.

"In every respect they appeared the equal of the National coin. The weight was more than at present, and the quality and ring were all that could be asked for. He spent them freely, and everybody accepted them on the assurance of Sprinkle that they were all right except that they were not made by the United States Mint. Upon being asked where he got the silver he replied: 'Oh, it doesn't matter; there is plenty of it left.' The inscriptions on the coins were rudely outlined, and in no wise was an attempt made at imitating the National coin. On one side of the coin was an owl and on the other a six-pointed star. The edges were smooth. The coins were considerably larger and thicker than the United States coin. Whenever Sprinkle came to town he spent the dollars of his own make.

"At one time he volunteered the information that he had a silver mine in the West, but the old man refused to tell any one where it was located. Finally the Government agents heard of the matter and came on to investigate. Sprinkle was arrested and brought into Court, but the dollars were proven to be pure silver without alloy—worth in fact a trifle over 81 each. After an exciting trial he was acquitted. When the verdict was announced Sprinkle reached down in his pocket and drew out a bag of fifty of the coins and paid his attorney in the presence of the astonished officials. Sprinkle was never afterward bothered and continued to make the dollars until the time of his death. He died suddenly and carried the secret of his silver mine with him."

WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

Spain, already in no very good humor with the United States, is making faces over the back of the British lion, and talking about an alliance with Great Britain in case of hostilities. Well, we can wallop both of the two of you!

In 1894, under the McKinley Tariff, American farmers sold $3,844,332 worth of hops in "the markets of the world." In 1895, under the Gorman Tariff, they sold only $1,872,597. Does this look like we were "capturing" those markets?

The first step of the Republicans will be to increase the revenues of the Government so that its income shall be greater than its expenditures. No Government and no people can prosper when the outgo continually exceeds the income.

PHILADELPHIA's great trolley strike is ended. JOHN WANAMAKER is the man who brought about the settlement, succeeding where all others failed. Now let some of the able Democratic editors set another snare at Mr. WANAMAKER, "a chief sin is business sense and Republicanism."

THE LEDGER, as its motto at the head of this column emphatically indicates, is for "America and Americans;" therefore, it is for Protection to American industries and the employment of American workmen; and therefore, again, it is for the restoration of the main features of the McKinley Tariff; and therefore some more, it is for WILLIAM McKINLEY for the next President of the American Nation.

The coming Republican Legislature, with the aid of some honest Democrats, if there are any such in the Senate, will most likely abolish that useless sin, the office of Register of the Land Office. This office costs the taxpayers of the state $24,000 a year, and in the way of free bribe in only $6,000 a year—a clear loss of $18,000 annually. For what little there is to do, the office could be made a part of the Auditor's Office, and a clerk or two could be assigned to its duties. Then, too, the office of Commonwealth's Attorney might be dispensed with, saving $15,000 in salaries and many times that in fees. It is safe to say that the abolition of these two offices would save the state from $39,000 to $100,000 a year without in the least interfering with the laws. There are other changes that can be made that will make a saving to the state of at least $300,000 a year.

CLEVELAND, CARLISLE and a few other financiers of their stripe, including the Washington end of The Courier-Journal, insist that the Government is not in need of any more revenue. Let's see: the latest statement made by Mr. CARLISLE himself shows that the Treasury deficit for December is now $2,039,906 53, for the fiscal year $18,809,132 21, and for the Cleveland Administration $130,768,685 78. In other words, since Mr. CLEVELAND and Mr. CARLISLE started in to run the Government finances they have paid out $130,768,685 78 more than they took in! It strikes us that if our expenses were that much greater than our receipts, it would be about time to look for some employment that would yield a larger income than THE LEDGER now affords. At least that's the way it looks to a common, every-day financier. To be expectantly blind about the matter, CLEVELAND and CARLISLE ought to be bored for the hollow horn.

Representative Smith of Michigan has introduced a bill to reduce the McKinley Tariff Bill schedules covering agricultural products, wool and woolen goods and silk and silk goods.

What an object lesson we have as to the bounties of the Wilson Tariff in the reports from Washington of the imports and exports for the first nine months of the present year. There was a falling off in exports of more than $18,000,000, and an increase of imports of more than $97,000,000 below the sales of the same period last year, although we were promised that the Democratic Tariff would work directly the other way. It is true that the Wilson Tariff has opened up the markets of the world, but we are on the wrong side of the world to get the benefit.

Residents of Ashland, Portsmouth and Ironton will join in an endeavor to recover a fortune of $66,000,000, the Post heirs at Philadelphia. The claim arises through the expiration of a ninety-nine year lease upon valuable property located the city, and the claim has been in litigation since 1892.

MADE OLD FRIENDS GLAD.
A Story of John D. Rockefeller's Unselfish Generosity.

A story of the characteristic generosity of John D. Rockefeller comes from Mt. Victory, a small Ohio village.

When Mr. Rockefeller was a young man struggling to get a footing in life, he boarded with a widow who looked after him in a kindly, motherly way and did him many little favors, none of which he ever forgot.

Many years afterwards, learning that she was married and settled on a farm near Mt. Victory, he resolved to visit her. He found her in cramped circumstances, with a large family to look after. Age and hard work were beginning to tell on the couple. They had a large farm, but it was heavily mortgaged.

Mr. Rockefeller in the course of his visit found out all about their troubles. As he started to leave he presented the lady a beautiful book. He then went to the bank where the mortgage was held, and finding it amounted to $2,000, paid it by a New York draft certified by telegraph and had the "satisfaction price" properly recorded.

A few days later he received a letter from the lady acknowledging him with the fact that she had found a $1,000 bill in the book given her and asking him how to return the money. He replied simply, "The bill is one of the illustrations of the book and belongs to you."

About six months later he received another letter saying that they had been to the bank to pay the interest on the note when they were quietly informed that the entire mortgage had been paid off by a stranger six months previous.

Mr. Rockefeller in telling this story remarked that he found the greatest possible satisfaction in such unobtrusive benefactions to friends of his youth.

The advertising columns of THE LEDGER speak for themselves. They show that people who know how to advertise know also where to advertise.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

ONE KILLED.
And Others Wounded in a Battle With Moslems.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 27.—News of a terrible battle between revenue officers and moonshiners in the Cumberland mountains has just reached here. A number of revenue men under charge of the famous "Kid" Green, invaded Fletcher county in quest of illicit stills. They were surprised by the shiners, who were behind a high embankment. Greer received a bullet in his hip and another in his shoulder. Jim Winfield, one of the "shiners," was killed, and David and Sam Collier and Marion Brown were taken prisoner. The revenue men arrived at Prestonsburg, Floyd county, Wednesday, where they told of their experience. Greer is not badly hurt. Several stills were cut to pieces, and about 2,000 gallons of brandy and whisky destroyed.

REDDICKS SENTENCED.
He Gets Life Imprisonment—Many Believe the Man Is Innocent.
LANCASTER, Ky., Dec. 27.—Henry Reddicks, who is charged with the burning of the Miller hotel at this place last January, causing the death of Mr. E. A. Pascoe, the landlord, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Masters, and son Oscar, was taken to the penitentiary at Frankfort by Sheriff T. B. Robinson Thursday morning, served the marriage life sentence, imposed by the Grand Jury circuit court in April, and recently adjudge by the court of appeals. Reddicks still protests his innocence, and many believe him, although at the time of his arrest, a few weeks after the dreadful fire, mob violence was generally expected. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence and developments subsequent to the trial have tended to prove him guilty.

Killed at a Dance.
BOONVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—Advice from Euclid, Hart county, say that at a dance in that vicinity Henry Mathis shot Tom Mathis in the back, killing him instantly, and was instantly killed himself by some one shooting him. Alvin Mathis, a son of Henry Mathis, was also perhaps fatally shot. He is thought to have been the instigator of the shooting. A temporary restraining order was granted by the court of appeals, and the matter is now pending. Henry Mathis and Tom were not related.

Grants an Injunction.
SHELBYVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—Circuit Judge Carroll, at his home in New Castle, Thursday granted the stockholders on the Cumberland and Ohio railroad, northern division, a temporary injunction against the L. and N. Railroad Co., restraining the latter from stopping the running of trains on that division known as the Woodford Branch of the L. and N., and which they had intended to abandon December 31.

A Riot at Harrodsburg, Ky.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—A special to the Scripps-McLure league from Madisonville, Ky., says that a riot is raging at the mining town of Bernsley, six miles from there. Disaffected miners and whisky are the cause. The local officers were overpowered, and a conservative store was looted. The miners are in power. Several people were hurt. Sheriff Thompson left Madisonville for the place with 15 armed deputies.

Shot Himself Before His Sweetheart.
OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—Walker Ramsey, a well-known man of this place, shot himself and was thought to be dying Thursday. He went to see his sweetheart, Martha Wagner, and it is said they had a quarrel about the Christmas gift which he presented to her, and she declared she would never speak to him again. Instantly he drew a revolver and fired a bullet into his breast.

Shoots Himself.
RICHMOND, Ky., Dec. 27.—A telephone message from Forttown Tuesday night summoned Dr. Foster to the home of D. D. Young, who had shot himself with a pistol. He died at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. When the pistol was fired someone ran into the room and Johnson said he had shot himself accidentally.

Fight at a Christmas Celebration.
VANDERBURGH, Ky., Dec. 27.—News reaches here of a desperate shooting and cutting affray at a church a short distance south of Quincy. A Christmas tree attracted a large crowd. A general fight occurred. Charles Harman, a young business man of Quincy, was badly cut and may die.

A General Row at McKimley.
MCKIMLEY, Ky., Dec. 27.—A general row took place here Christmas day between a crowd of whites and some colored men. Governor and Tom Goodrich and Deputy George Reynolds arrested several men, one, Henry Burton, was shot. His wound is severe.

The Mercury Fell Rapidly.
PARIA, Ky., Dec. 27.—A rushing, roaring, blinding blizzard of snow, rain, hail and sleet struck this city shortly after noon Thursday, the thermometer dropping rapidly in a few minutes. It lasted but a few moments, departing as rapidly as it came.

Miss Hardin Secretly Married.
HARRISBURG, Ky., Dec. 27.—Miss Sophia Hardin, daughter of Col. Ben Lee Hardin, a niece of Gen. Wat Hardin, was Wednesday secretly married to J. H. Grimes, Jr., and the two left for Atlanta.

Sitting at Bloomfield.
CHICKENVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—It was reported here late Thursday night that the tunnel men were rioting at Bloomfield tunnel, on the Pan-handle road. Very meager particulars are obtainable. The report is unreliable, however, that the county officials fear they may have to call on the governor for help. Urchiveville has been asked to be ready to send men to help quell the trouble if necessary.
